The Classroom Mini-Economy

A Workshop for Teachers, Grades K-6

Decisions! Decisions!

The Mini-Economy helps students apply critical thinking skills through real-world activities such as applying for classroom jobs, running businesses, paying taxes, buying rental properties, and making investments. The mini-economy is, in effect, a miniature economic system operating within the regular classroom.

Curriculum too crowded, you say? The mini-economy integrates easily into social studies, math, reading, art, and information technology.

Benefits for teachers:

- Receive standards-based teaching materials
- FREE Lunch
- Earn 6 credit renewal points
- $50 Substitute reimbursement
- $50 Classroom start-up funds

Benefits for students

- Tremendous motivator for student learning
- Develops entrepreneurial competency
- Applies 21st century skills
- Models our economic system
